GENERAL COMPANY INFORMATION

History

The original weaving business began in 1783 at Remony near Aberfeldy, Perthshire and moved to Pitlochry in 1835. Over the years there have been many changes to the business although it has always remained within the same family. Since 1999 the Head Office and warehousing operations have been based in Perth, with production operations located in Keith and Paisley.

Company Structure

Macnaughton Holdings Limited is a privately owned company, managed by a Board of executive and non-executive Directors. The executive Directors are responsible for their separate divisions (Finance, Operations, Production and Wholesale) with overall responsibility resting with the Managing Director.

The Company employs approximately 95 people in total. The majority of the employees are based in Perth, Paisley and Keith, with certain Sales Personnel based in other areas in Scotland and England

The Brands

The Company's products are wholesaled under the following brand names.

The Isle Mill

The Isle Mill is known for its fine upholstery fabrics and throws designed by an in-house team and manufactured from predominantly natural fibres. The stock collections are supplied to the interior design and hospitality markets in the U.K. and abroad through a network of agents and distributors. A design and manufacturing service is also offered to other wholesalers.

The House of Edgar

This market leading brand offers a flexible stock service to meet the needs of the Highlandwear market. Approximately 1,000 kilting tartans are stocked along with an extensive range of jackets, sporrans, brogues, hose, ties and a selection of tartan giftware.

Whitehill & Wilsons - Paisley

The Whitehill & Wilsons brand has been built around the famous Paisley teardrop motif that has inspired a range of scarves and shawls for the retail market. The original archive designs have been translated into modern patterns and colours.

Whitehill & Wilsons - Scout/Guide Neckerchiefs

For many years Whitehill & Wilsons has been the main supplier of neckerchiefs to the Scout and Guide movements in the U.K. and Europe. Standard troop, district and council neckers are available and special neckers for scouting events are regularly produced.

EMPLOYING PEOPLE - A BRIEF OUTLINE OF OUR COMPANY'S POLICY

The Company's success depends to a significant extent upon the contribution of its employees. The Board of Directors therefore recognises that fair and effective employment policies are essential to the achievement of that success.

The Company also recognises that the success of these policies requires that there should be an awareness and acceptance of them at every level of the organisation. The successful development, implementation and operation of employment policies require the involvement of all employees.

The Board of Directors has identified the following policy areas, based on the foregoing principles, which it considers are essential to the future success of the Company:

- Health and safety - to maintain safe and healthy working conditions for all employees.
- Staff planning - to determine the future mix of skills and size of workforce required, and plan to meet the Company's needs.
- Equal opportunity - to do everything possible to ensure that all present and potential employees have an equal opportunity.
- Security of employment - to provide security and continuity of employment, consistent with the need to ensure the continued viability of the organisation.
- Training - to set appropriate standards of performance for the organisation and to provide training which ensures these standards are met.
